We are now sole agents for three lines of Shoes that we sell with THE GUARANTEE "Another pair of Shoes or the money back if they do not prove good." The Hanan & Son, W. L. Douglas and the "Walk Over" are "Our Leaders." If you are not posted as to the reputation of these manufacturers, inquire of those who are. WE SELL P. N. CORSETS

Do you know what they are? The Corsets of comfort and style. The only corsets that will not—because they cannot—stretch. They're built that way. The test of time has convinced us that what the manufacturers long ago claimed is absolutely true. These corsets cannot stretch. Because of the properly shaped and carefully shrunken material which enter into their make up it is an utter impossibility. Three qualities—$1, $1.25, $1.50.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT POINT!

Get the right size. Nature gives most women beautiful figures which they promptly ruin with poor corsets. Get a corset that fits and pay enough to get a good one. Too small a corset destroys symmetry—too large a corset is just as bad. In either case no point of the corset strikes you when it should. An able saleswoman has charge of our corset section—she has studied the question and can help you to determine the style and size best adapted to your figure. Consult her.

HAYSWOOD RECITALS.

Two Delightful Events Yesterday at First Presbyterian Church.

Two musical recitals were given by Haywood Seminary yesterday under the direction of Miss Moore, the very accomplished pianoforte instructor.

One in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, which was quasi public, and one in the evening at 8 o'clock, both in the basement of the First Presbyterian Church.

The first program was given by the various pupils, who performed in a manner highly satisfactory to patrons and pupil.

Type cannot give that harmony of sound, technique and expression which caused a thrill of joy to possess every one in the large and appreciative audience which both recitals drew as the programs were being rendered.

If you want to see the criminal effect of using paria green on tobacco plants, just examine a few small leaves in the window of Ray's Postoffice Drugstore. There is enough of the poison within a few inches space to kill half a dozen men. These leaves were taken from a lot of tobacco bought by a local dealer. One way to stop this criminal use of poison is to refuse to buy tobacco from any grower who puts it on his plants.

The last will of the late Henry Ward, which was filed for probate at the May term and passed, came up in Court yesterday. The children of two former wives made a fight over the estate, which is in Mason county and the state of Nebraska, valued at $5,000. It was left to his third wife, Mrs. Joannina Ward, by whom he had no children. A compromise was effected and the will admitted and the suit dismissed. Mrs. Ward qualified as Executrix, with Henry Ray surety.

Take a cup of Arbuckle's Coffee and a cup of the "cent-a-pound-cheaper" kind. One taste of each will prove to you that the reason Arbuckle's costs a little more is because it's worth more. It's selected with greater pains, roasted with greater care, packed with greater skill. It comes to you as fresh as when it left the roaster. Not a particle of its strength or flavor lost. Cheap coffee lacks both strength and flavor.

ARBUCKLE'S Roasted Coffee

is cheaper in the end than other coffees because it makes more cups to the pound and gives far greater satisfaction.

With each package of Arbuckle's Coffee you purchase a definite part of some useful article—which is yours on presentation to our Notion Dept. of a certain number of signatures cut from the wrappers. You'll find a list of the articles in each package.

SPRINGDALE.

Miss Belle Wolf has returned from a visit to friends in Aberdeen.
Miss Glenn Elliott spent Monday with relatives in Maysville.
Mrs. Alvin Wilson of Sandhill is dangerously ill with pneumonia.
Mrs. R. C. Williams of Stonelick visited her sister, Mrs. Degman, at Maysville from Friday till Sunday.

Mr. C. C. Degman is attending the G. A. R. Encampment at Covington this week.
Mrs. Mary Smith of Chattanooga, Tenn., is visiting relatives and friends in Lewis county.

Memorial Day seems to have been very generally observed. Private and obscure burying-grounds were profusely decorated.
Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams left Sunday afternoon for their home at East Limestone after a three days' visit with relatives at Maysville.

A report circulated through the neighborhood that Bowman Girvin was to be buried at Bethany brought quite a crowd there Sunday morning.
A pathetic scene of Memorial Day at East Fork was the burial at 2 p. m. of Mrs. J. Kennedy, formerly Miss Mary L. Sparks, whose life had been spent in the near vicinity and whose parents had been pioneer members of the Church there.

A spirited young horse, driven by Mr. A. S. Cole, became frightened at a roll of fence wire lying near the pike and ran backwards over a bank, near Pleasant Hill schoolhouse, a few days ago. Mr. G. W. Bell, who was with him, jumped from the buggy and caught the frightened animal, thereby preventing a serious accident. One of Mr. Bell's hands was considerably lacerated by coming in contact with the buggy wheel, and his ankle slightly sprained. Fortunately there were no other damages.

Notwithstanding the dreadful condition of the roads leading to and the lack of drinking water and other conveniences, historic old East

Fork continues to be the Mecca of vast numbers of people on each succeeding Memorial Day. Last Thursday was no exception to the rule and several thousand were on the ground. But one is not surprised after walking through the Cemetery and reading, sometimes with difficulty, the names inscribed on the quaint old-fashioned memorial tablets—names that represent the pioneer citizenship of the entire county of Lewis and part of Mason and Fleming. The dates on some of the stones were in the early twenties of the nineteenth century. Memorial Day of 1901, under the auspices of Croston Post No. 9, was a success in all that goes to make up a real "Memorial." Exercises opened at 10 a. m. with devotional services—prayer and music. The ritual of the G. A. R. was read by the Commander of Post, Mr. C. C. Degman. No foreign speakers being present several short addresses by local celebrities were given, also appropriate recitations by a number of young ladies. The ceremony of decorating the graves was then conducted with its usual dignified solemnity. The music, conducted by Mrs. Laura Hendrickson, was all that could be desired. The noonday lunch was served with usual munificence "good things." A happy day of joyful greeting of old friends, mingled with fond recollections of those departed, drew to a close and at 4 p. m. the crowd dispersed, leaving the time-honored house and the quiet sleepers alone, comparatively, till another Memorial Day rolls around.

The ladies of the Central Presbyterian Church will give an Icecream and Strawberry Supper Thursday evening, June 6th, at the residence of Dr. Molloy.

Y. M. C. A.

Members' Rally at Rooms Thursday night from 8 to 10 o'clock. A jolly good time is promised and every member is expected.

The Ladies' Committee will hold its last regular meeting of the season at the Rooms Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock. Full attendance desired, and all pledges on ladies' fund should be handed in at this time.

Thursday afternoon the Y. M. C. A. Basket Ball team will meet the great team of the Cincinnati Y. M. C. A. at the Ball Park. This will be the event of the season and a large crowd should be out to welcome the visitors and give the home boys a good send off.

An Open Letter.

We desire to say that our business since January 1st has passed the mark anticipated. We wish to be frank; therefore we are not attempting to talk to business people and put it in the form of a polished essay. The advantage of having merchandise different from your competitors is apparent, provided that the retailer is known to be reliable. Does not a good deal of advertising appear to you as though the advertisers were indulging too freely in Fine Words? Most of them something that means nothing. Names are invented for goods that have no bearing whatever to the materials turned and twisted until they are no longer relevant, but fine words do not make fine goods. We are strong believers in advertising because it is a good thing, but advertising doesn't pay unless constructed on a proper basis, and that is to plainly tell people what you have to sell, and sell it as low as is consistent with legitimate business methods.

Our spring importation of Dress Goods, White Goods, Carpets, Mattings and Housekeeping Goods generally is complete. Cost and learn prices, which will be found to be as cheap as the cheapest, quality considered. Respectfully,
GEORGE COX & SON,
82 years selling good goods.
